Mental Health Association Honors Community Service/Volunteers and Announces Annual Meeting

Mental Health Association in Orange County, Inc. will hold its Annual Meeting and will honor its many volunteers and supporters with a Reception and Recognition Ceremony on Thursday, May 12, at 4 to 6pm at Middletown Elks Lodge #1097 in Middletown, NY. MHA's Annual meeting will precede the Community Service/Volunteer Reception Recognition Ceremony. MHA will be recognizing and honoring the following individuals, agency and businesses:

The 2015 Program Volunteers of the Year are:

MHA James A. Lagarde Sr. Volunteer of the Year	Lisa Currao
Adult Family Support	Joanne Omar
CAPIS	Robin Slaven
Hudson House	Christina Thompson

The 2015 Program Community Service Award Recipients are:

Hudson House	Salvation Army – Newburgh Location
Parents Run AMOC (Autism Move-a-Thon of Orange County)	Bagelworld

MHA's Executive Director, Nadia Allen, spoke of all the volunteers and community services being honored. "MHA Board of Directors, staff and program participants are very grateful to all the award recipients. MHA's mission continues to be fulfilled on a daily basis thanks to their priceless contribution to the individuals we serve. Their selfless and caring volunteerism and community service are vital to our success."
