Mental Health Association Honors Community Service/Volunteers and Announces Annual Meeting

Mental Health Association in Orange County, Inc. will hold its Annual Meeting and will honor its many volunteers and supporters with a Reception and Recognition Ceremony on Thursday, May 21, at 4 to 6pm at Middletown Elks Lodge #1097 in Middletown, NY. MHA's Annual meeting will precede the Community Service/Volunteer Reception Recognition Ceremony. MHA will be recognizing and honoring the following individuals, agency and businesses:

The 2014 Program Volunteers of the Year are:

Adult Family Support	Anil Sannessy and Megan Wieben
Helpline	Jacqueline Lindine
Invisible, Children's Project, Supported Housing, and Hudson House	Allison Nagler
CAPIS	Camerin Figueroa
Parents Run AMOC	Ayla Devenney

The 2014 Program Community Service Award Recipients are:

Administration	CPI Copier and Fax Machines
Parents Run AMOC (Autism Move-a-Thon of Orange County)	IBEW – Local 363

MHA's Executive Director, Nadia Allen, spoke of all the volunteers and community services being honored. "MHA Board of Directors, staff and program participants are very grateful to all the award recipients. MHA's mission continues to be fulfilled on a daily basis thanks to their priceless contribution to the individuals we serve. Their selfless and caring volunteerism and community service are vital to our success."
